MONTEVIDEO.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Montevideo 3rd May, 1880. We have commenced the month with a feast day. St. Philip and St. Yago, the patron saints of this city, and we shall have plenty of other feast days, as we can count nine altogether for this month, including five Sundays, 25th of May, and two other holidays. Grand Mass at the Cathedral on the 1st, and all the usual rejoicings of the Catholic church. We have no lack of rejoicings in one shape or another, and had the usual bull-fighting, theatricals, concerts, all amateur performances. We have also had the inauguration of St. Philip and Santiago new theatre on the 1st, with a new Spanish opera company (or zarzuela), the President of the Republic presiding, and the usual National Hymn sung. The theatre is a very handsome third-rate building, and it makes the third good theatre in the place, including, of course, the grand Solis. The performance of the zarzuela was a very poor affair, and the company was hissed. The meeting was very numerous, and the building seems to meet the general idea of safety, comfort and magnificence, though I rather there were a little more ease in the means of egress, especially in cases of accident, fire &c; but our experience as a young community does not include any dangerous accidents of this kind as yet, and we shall wait for better opportunities to take measures against a recurrence of which will take place some day in the usual order of things, and may God in his infinite benevolence grant that when it occurs it may not be such as we have seen in other countries, or such as the one in Chile not many years ago, when the Compañía church was burnt down, with thousands of people in it of the best society. Among the rejoicings of the week we were to have had a ball on board the fine ship of war Shenandoah, but through some cause unknown to me it has been postponed 'since die.' We shall have also boat races in Santa Lucia, and on the 25th grand horse races on the 'Ingeniero' race course. Mr. Hermann, the great sleight of hand performer, has already given us a couple of 'soires' of very good feats, much to the general approval of the enlightened public. One of the best of his feats is the one he performed the day he arrived among the Custom House employees. He proved that the 'guardia' had his full of guineas, and the poor man, who has not had his pay for some months, thought he had a good haul, but Hermann managed to convince him that though the guineas were in his hat (the guardia's) the money was his own (Hermann's) and so the poor man did not get a hot day.

In politics the rejoicings are not so many. Col. Latorre turns out to have returned from Pelotas, in Brazil, and is now apparently in Melo (Cerro Largo). I hear to-day that he has been ordered out of the country, but doubt the fact, as it is against the Constitution, and neither Government nor the Legislature can order him away before one year has expired after leaving office. Yet, such things as forgetting the Constitution happen here sometimes. Signor de Texanos is reported to be Col. Santos' candidate for the post of Minister of Government; no doubt he finds Melibachos does not suit him. I am assured that Texanos will get the place, and as for Signor Peñaña, he is a very good honest man, no doubt at all about it, but... is not 'the right man in the right place' just at this moment; so it would seem, at least, if one is to judge by 'les on dits.' In fact we seem to be in a permanent state of bewilderment in regard to the Cabinet homogeneity and other requisite conditions of good policy and pulling together in the great new Government Palace. By the bye, I am told that the preparations to furnish the new Palace are simply astounding. There are to be Brussels' carpets even from the very entrance of the hall, along all the staircases and so forth; splendid carved rose-wood furniture, lined with broad silk all over (excepting the tables and wardrobes, I presume) and such other magnificence in the way of regal instandards that the Emperor of Turkey would consider himself beaten hollow. Nothing like Republican institutions, such as we understand them here, for Spartan simplicity and manliness. In fact we are getting on so well with the 'National Tiro' that we only wished such a spectacle as the aforesaid Government House is going to present to make a complete thing of it. There was a meeting of the members of the 'Tiro' on the 1st, and the same 300 'citoyens' were present, all belonging to the young idea of the University and the Atheneum; old covies do not seem willing to be taken with chaff; just like old birds. The meeting appointed the new managing committee, and they are to commence with athletics until they get 'permiso' to get Remington or Spencer Rifles. I wonder they do not think of getting out some good Kentuckians to teach the young idea to pull a trigger at the right moment, now that Dr. Estrella is going for good and all to the United States to settle down there and be a practitioner, where he learned his profession as surgeon. A few such chaps as they could get in old Kentucky would be useful to get up a good 'Tiro,' and I take the opportunity of suggesting the idea. As for news about the Government, I am told that great economies are to be introduced into the Budget, and one hundred new military grades have been accorded to as many officers for meritorious services to be performed in some future battles, and good behaviour in the service under the ruling powers.

LATEST FROM OHUBUÉ.

SUSPECTED MURDER.

VISIT OF H.M.S. GARNET.

THE INDIAN QUESTION.

Our last news from the Welsh Colony mentioned a man of the name of John Haycock as missing. His body was eventually found floating in the river, a little below his house, and on enquiry before the coroner it was clearly shown he was shot in the head, 'by some person or persons unknown.' When the Gwentian left two persons had been arrested on suspicion, and the inquiry was proceeding with vigor, and we are happy to add, with the hearty cooperation of the National and local authorities. We have no doubt the Chirpaé colonists will again show the whole Republic how to deal with an enthrallment, and what prompt proceedings should be taken to protect life. This is the third murder committed in the colony, the victims in each case being colonists, but the murderers straggling vagabonds casually sojourning there.

H.M.S. Garnet paid a hurried visit to the colony, on its return from the annual trip to the Falklands. Two officers walked the distance from Port Maitin (say 40 miles) in ten hours, to apprise the colonists that the Garnet was at the anchorage. Afterwards Captain Eustling, Dr. Minnis, the chaplain (who, by the bye, turned out to be a Welshman 'par sang') and several other officers went over for a couple of days' shooting and riding. But the advice from Montevideo not being very reassuring, the stay was too short for any hunting parties to be formed. The Garnet gave information at the Colony that at Port St. Helena they found the wreck of the schooner belonging to the French penguin establishment on Leones Islet.

The Governor of Patagonia lately sent a communication to Chirpaé, enjoining vigilance against the Indians, as the powerful chief of the Mapuchas was not very well disposed just now towards the whites. Although the colonists have very little fear of any hostilities, it was proposed to take occasion of this to organize the urban guard for practice and watch.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Irrepressible politics were again in the ascendant yesterday, but people are getting so thoroughly sick of them that the very latest and most startling novelty 'in this line' does not retain its interest for more than 24 hours, if so long. An enterprising collector issued a bulletin (sent by many to be a skin) about ten hours, with the concluding paragraph of President Ayvala's Message to Congress, not yet delivered; it purports to have come from Rosario: The President says that Congress is the Supreme Judge of the recent elections. So it is; H.E. adds that so long as there is a National Government, it will not allow recent threats against its rights to be carried out. On the whole, the political wind looks on the point of rising to a gale, but the oldest and best heads still persist in their opinion that the ship of State will weather the breaker now looming so close ahead.

We received a polite note yesterday from Mr. Castro, the courteous Secretary of the Buenos Ayres Exhibition, asking us to favor him by publishing the list of the Ladies' Committee of the Exhibition. No favor at all, Mr. Castro! where ladies are concerned there is no objection. The following are the names and the local habitations of the fair Committee—beg pardon for the 'bull':—

"Presidente, Señora de Paz, Riva-davia 710; V. P. Sra. de Monja, Victoria 422; Sra. de Avellaneda, Moreno 222; Sra. de Anzo, Bolívar 66; Sra. de Doyne, 23 de Mayo 129; Sra. de Pedriel, Esmeralda 370; Sra. de Boch, San Martín 344; Sra. de Harialas, Tucuman 333; Sra. de Lahitte, Bolívar 215; Sra. de Barra, Alsina 547; Sra. de Florbondo, Florida 222; Sra. de Lavalle, Moreno 693; Señora de Aguirre, Tucuman 201."

Our young friends of the Junior Athletic Club promise the public a capital day's sport to-morrow at their Competition Meeting at Palermo. The programme is first rate, and the prizes are certainly handsome enough to make a man run like a redhank, jump like Jim Crow, or throw a hammer over his the continue fine, and there is every appearance of it, the Juniors may look out for a large body of spectators of their prowess to-morrow.

We call the attention of investors and speculators in land to an important advertisement which Messrs. Rom and Quintana, the well-known real estate agents, publish in another column. A square league of prime land for 10,000 paper dollars ought to be a pretty good purchase.

A Spanish lady in man's attire was arrested by the police on Sunday. In the pursuit and most drollest Castilian tale told the Commissary that 'her brute of a husband' had abandoned her several years ago in Spain, and she was now engaged in searching for him all the world over. The Commissary assured her of his most distinguished consideration and let her go. This romantic incident is very similar to the chase of Harry Lorrequer's fat little friend Mr. O'Leary, by the half-married Madame B.

There will be a regatta to-morrow at Montevideo, under the auspices of the Rowing Club of that city. The weather is extremely cold for aquatic amusements, but young blood is always warm.

The National Government has just come in for a whirlwind through two Argentine named Rios being murdered in Paraguay. They left a couple of thousand pats worth of property, and as no heirs can be found, even a 31st cousin, twice removed, the Government gets the legacy.

The [very] varlike speech attributed to General Roca at Rosario, by the opposition papers, is flatly contradicted. It is of a piece with the telegram before the elections. How can any political cause be secured by this sort of thing?

A highly esteemed subscriber and old friend writes to us from Salto about Home Rule, asking us where we got our information about a rebellion against Mr. Parnell in Ireland, and the bold men of Westford not seeming to like him. Your correspondent takes up the Daily Telegraph of March 30th, he can read one of the most amusing leading articles we have ever seen, on Mr. Parnell's 'very warm' reception by the electors of Ennisceorthy, headed by a popular parish priest.

The mystery as to the whereabouts of ex-President Latorre is said to be cleared up. The very latest news is that Mrs. Latorre has received an affectionate telegram from him, dated Melo, in which he says that he soon hopes to be 'enveloped in friends' on his return to the capital, and he will be warmly welcomed on Change there.

The Meeting of the Health Board, to abolish quarantine, missed fire on Monday, as too many Health matters do; but the members were expected to meet yesterday, if they could find time, which, the truth be told, it is sometimes not easy for medical men to do, any more than editors.

Mr. Jacobson, of the Libreria Republicana, has favored us with a list of Irish Catholic works, which would be too long to publish in our paper, as it would cover the whole fourth page. These works are most varied: historical, tragical, comic and all the other calts, at 80 mpc per volume. They are most interesting matter for the brain in the long winter evenings. One hundred volumes, an entire library, can be had for less than 6000.

The races at Lanas on Thursday promise a good day's sport. Some good animals will come to the post, and a brisk exchange of capital will be the result.

The manna of town could not do better than take their young fry to the Politeama in the daytime, weather permitting. The name of the games and amusements for children is Legion, the Learned Doctors, who make their bow (wow) every day at two o'clock, being conspicuously popular with juveniles. The 'entradas' is only 50 mpc. An old gentleman of colour named Ramon expired on Monday in the prime of life—105 years. He was singing half an hour before the 'pale visitor' who knocks alike at hut and palace, called for him.

The telegrams from the West Coast report Gen. Bazaras, with three Chilean divisions, as near Thana and a pitched and decisive battle may be expected at any moment.

The latest news from our Welsh friends at Chirpaé will be found in another column.

The mania for volunteering has spread to the provinces, which seem to be entering on the road to ruin with a 'light heart' as the French Minister (we forget his name) 'who went into the war with Germany.' The Entre Rios and Cordoba Legislatures have voted, or are about to vote, large sums for arms; in the latter province the 'Bill' proposes an 'unlimited credit' for the purpose in view. Nice work, my masters.

The morning papers say that the Opera Company will leave us very early this year—in August: so we won't have them for the Exhibition, if it come off. It appears that invariably, after the May Fetes, the receipts of the opera companies fall off, and for this reason several of our colleagues suggest that Mr. Ferrari ought to have a subsidy from the State, and he has done so much for the public that we think also that he is entitled to some support. Why not give him a trifle out of the proposed 50 million loan for arms?

We are favoured with a letter from a leading member of the Industrial Club, in answer to 'Anglo-Porteño's' communication in yesterday's issue, but we are obliged to hold it over till to-morrow, from want of space.

The city thieves are growing bolder from impunity. On Thursday, while Mr. Rivas was walking along Paseo Julio at 1 o'clock in the day, he was knocked down with a blow of a loaded whip on the head, by a well dressed man who took 30,000 mpc from the victim's pocket, jumped on a horse a boy was holding for him, and disappeared! This is a comfortable state of things in the heart of the city.

HOME RULE IN IRELAND.

Salto, May 2nd.

To the Editor of the Standard.

Dear Sir,

In your issue of the 28th ult., in the Editor's Table, you say:—In Ireland there seems to be a rebellion against Mr. Parnell: the bold men of Westford do not seem to like him! Please let us know from what source you have the above.

I have before me dates up to March 27th, and Westford, to a man, is for Parnell; and, as a proof, they reject O'Leary for not supporting him. On Sunday, March 22nd, the people of the town turned out 'en masse,' for the purpose of celebrating his return from the States.

I count on three Home Rule bills for Westford, even should O'Leary try to cause a division, and for the ancient borough of New Ross there is another to contest it with the present member, who is the owner of the town: here the contest will be sharp, but I have no fear for the cause, headed by Father Furlough, though liquids and solids may be placed against it.

Should the men of Westford succeed in electing four Home Rules to support Mr. Parnell, it will be the best proof that they care for him.

Truly yours
One of Them.

TUCUMAN SUGAR.

232 Calle Tucuman, May 3.
To the Editor of the Standard.

Sir,
In your letter, which you were good enough to insert in your paper of Saturday last, by an error of the press, we are made to say that Sr. Posse's triple effort apparatus at his estate Esperanza in Tucuman contains 3300 square feet of heating surface. It only contains 2800 square feet—200 less, and not 800 more as that of Sr. Mendez at the Estancia Concepcion.

As the error is one which, if allowed to pass uncorrected, would mislead and entirely defeat the object of our previous communication, we venture to beg you to insert this letter.

We have the honor to be, Sir,
Your obedient servants,
P. P. Enríquez Freyre & Co.,
V. Valbrun Chapman.

IRISH RELIEF FUND.

Received from Mr. E. T. Mulhall the sum of four hundred and seventy-five dollars, amount handed to him by Mr. Felix W. Dolan, as per list already published.

Owing to the general knowledge that the 'Comisión de Pólvora' was in disaccordance respecting its report to the Chambers of Deputies to-day with a decidedly finer tone; commencing at 31 mpc for cash, prices fell to 29.5, closing steady at opening rates. For the end of the month the same figures were posted, and for May and June insignificant amounts changed hands at previously indicated quotations.

Cedulas exhibited a slight weakness, being done at 82 and 83 for cash, and at the latter figures for the end of the month. In Billots de Tesorería only one operation of 44,800 at 73 was noted, but the decided decline in this security is leading to renewed quotation.

In National Bank Shares not a single transaction was effected. Generally speaking the market showed an aspect not so much of apathy as of uncertainty. The country is undoubtedly on the brink of important events and no one seems able to predict if the change will mean a jump or a disastrous fall. It is said that 2 members of the 'Comisión de Pólvora' will recommend the 'Comisión de la Elección' except the annulment of those for Corrientes, and the consideration of the Buenos Ayres in ordinary session. The other 3 members will propose the rejection of the elections in Santiago and Corrientes, accepting all the rest.

It is confidently stated that Mr. B. Campos will be supported by Governor Posse as a candidate for the Argentine Presidency, with the object of invading this Province. It is probable that these are simply a portion of a Santa Fe scheme, concocted for some time back in that locality.

The Provincial Senate was summoned for to-day about the fifty million business, and it is thought that their action will be in accordance with that of the Deputies.

Mr. Alkan, of Messrs. Lagos Macgregor & Co., took leave of his friends to-day on starting for Europe in the Britannia, via Montevideo.

A sale of 84 Old Gas Shares is reported at 200 mpc each, with dividend in favor of purchaser.

Special gold and Montevideo exchange are both handling. The former is quoted at 12 3/4 3/4 premium and the latter about 15 to 20 per cent premium.

The sale of gunpowder was palpably present on Change to-day, possibly owing to the numerous rockets procured for the Perlas del Mar. This document announces that President Ayvala is under the necessity of continually consulting General Roca, even to the extent of submitting for his approval the future presidential address to the National Chambers, a report of which the Perlas del Mar correspondent offers to supply. This news has no 'grit'.

An important contract in matadero sheepskins was mentioned on Change. The quantity is said to be a lot of 70,000 skins, deliverable from date to shearing time; and the price reported as 20 mpc per pound. This business caused some sensation, since the price is unprecedented in the annals of our market.

The sale of a cargo of home-made and bones from Concepcion del Uruguay, is reported at 16 1/2 mpc, also of 1,500 cow hides from the same locality, of 11 the weight, at 53 mpc. Respecting cereals, wheat shows no movement owing to stocks being virtually 'all' Matas arriving in very small quantities; and prices are consequently stiffening since retail dealers are short of stock. The quality of the grain is remarkably good. An additional motive for the rise in this article, is that there are now no anxiety to sell; most of them being well provided with funds, on account of the high prices obtained by them for their wheat.

The considerable market is still dull. But we hear of a sale of 5,000 cow hides, 'to arrive,' at eight dollars two mpc per gallon. Owing to the rise in the price of native cereals, the American attitudes have experienced a corresponding increase in value, and may now be quoted at about 68 mpc per barrel.

A friend from Rio reports the prevalence of a drought there, and cattle commencing to starve. Slaughterers are working with more activity, because stockholders are giving way in their prices. Near Bahia Blanca canals are reported in good condition, and a large influx of cattle from the Argentine districts. Land is being rented at about 20,000 mpc per league.

Gold closed excited and strong at 31, buyers for all dates.

Mr. Balrich will hold one of his famous auctions of fine animals at his celebrated man to-morrow.

The attention of commercial men is called to the fact, that owing to Thursday next being a holiday, a statement will be made for Montevideo on Friday, and the bills for the Uruguay and ports on Saturday.

At all hours the following sales:—

Our special Decca reporter gives the following:—
"The French barque Nanci called yesterday and is now at Drysdale's wharf."
"The Norwegian barque Margaretta has left."

"American lugger Henry Warner loading near barque Pela for Boston, U. States."
"British lugger Kingwood, Capt. Doberty" still at old berth waiting for mules."
"Mr. John Stafford has bought half a league of 2,400,000 mpc per league. This magnificent purchase corroborates what we have always said respecting the Western camp. This land in Sipecha is well worth the money invested, and Mr. Stafford may be assured that ten years hence he will be able to sell the land at double the present rate. The fencing wire of the camp was not included in the valuation and had to be paid separately. The estancia formerly belonged to the late Mr. Michael Murray, who made a large fortune on it, and who would not have sold it even for the present price. The camp is first class and of the best in the Western district. A trip to the camp would much enrich town folks who have never ventured beyond the municipal boundaries. A few years hence and we will see estates and fortunes which will eclipse the domains of the English aristocracy."

We have the following news from Messrs. Lampert & Hill's steam ship agency:—
Placed on her trip up from Montevideo to this port was freed at the Argentine man-of-war Constitution, stopped and an armed force sent on board. All communication with shore has been stopped, and the vessel appears to be in a kind of mariflete, say 'state of siege.' This state of affairs will lead to an interesting diplomatic discussion, and may become a modified Trent question. There are several Argentine men-of-war cruising on the Montevideo route. The causes that have led to this incomprehensible measure are said to be based on wrong information given the National Government. Anyhow the matter will not pass unnoticed.

Mr. Henry A. Green, agent for the Royal Mail Company, received a telegram to-day from the Directors in London, stating that the Company intend to send two steamers per month to and from the Plate, on the 1st and 15th. The directors at home are at last convinced of the fact that the River Plate trade requires more than one steamer. We take this opportunity to congratulate Mr. H. A. Green, who sees his unending career crowned with success. This move means a new departure in the life of the Royal Mail Company, which formerly held a first position in the River Plate steam trade, and is now rapidly regaining that position. The new service will be begun by the Tamar on 15th June, the Minho following on 1st July.

Mr. Henry A. Green has been appointed agent in this city for the Alliance British and Foreign Fire and Life Insurance Company. Our Montevideo correspondent gives the following:—
"Great havoc is being made among the cattle breeders' stock through the scarcity of pasture and heavy frosts now falling on the new plants and destroying the pasture fields they depended upon for the winter; and in San Jose department some people have lost as many as three thousand head of cattle in a time, and many others smaller fractions. Sheep are doing very well though and promise a fine year's result of their care. Many estancieros are sending their best cattle to cut city salesmen, among which many cows, to secure their money away from impending trouble, or epidemic destruction. No less than 37,000 head have been brought in the last month, and about 15,000 mares also, for which the owners have as high as 4 (four) gold dollars per head for good fat mares. If we go on this way we shall shortly have no more horses in this country; but four years of peace have increased the stock of this kind to an extent. Three 4 years of peace we owe to Colonel Latorre. To-day (1st) the subscribers of the Exchange (Bolsa) meet to discuss several reforms to be introduced in the rules and about the exchange. The Government has promised to Mr. Chanters Mr. Bravo's propositions to get Palmira (port in the Uruguay) as a depot for Bolivian produce which shall come when his grand scheme be carried out, and it has been decided to send Leguizamo to consider the project of law on public lands and colonization."

The following is the latest about the London money market, on 4th ult.:—
"There was again an easy tendency in money to-day, and the discount demand was fairly, while being taken in some cases at 2 1/2 per cent, in view of the expected plethora which is to follow the distribution of the dividends on Tuesday next. It is likely enough that the representatives of advances from the Bank of England which have to be made will prevent the release of the dividends from producing immediately the full effect anticipated; but, allowing for this, all the indications point to further ease, and the rate for bills will probably be reduced to 2 1/2 per cent. Short loans were in request during the earlier hours at 2 1/2, 3 per cent; but in the afternoon, when the trade acceptance of the '4th' had been provided for, the terms declined to 2 per cent, and there were ample balances left over unemployed. Gold to a considerable amount—£58,000—was taken from the Bank for export; to what destination did not transpire. This withdrawal, however, is supposed to be quite an exceptional operation, as the exchange at nearly all the Continental centres are too high to attract gold from this side. The only quarter whence any demand has lately come is Spain."

"All the stock markets were buoyant, and a much more extensive business was transacted than is generally seen on a Saturday. The progress of the elections has not retarded speculation from the confidence they most dreaded, a nice balance of parties, leading to another dissolution, and has satisfied them that the new Liberal Government will have an ample working majority. They are consequently disposed to allow full weight to the favourable indications which were in full progress when the dissolution was announced, but which at once temporarily checked. English railways, for instance, have already achieved most satisfactory results since the revival of industry commenced, and these are not in the least likely to be interrupted when, in addition to active trade, the probability of a good harvest has to be taken into consideration. A further rise in the market value of the various stocks is therefore almost certain, and part of this was 'discounted' to-day by operators who bought freely all round and called everything up."

It was said on Change that the memoirs of the National Minister of Finance will not be ready for some time after the meeting of Congress, as the other ministers have not as yet sent in the estimates of their departments for the coming year to the Finance Office.

The time for paying Contribution Directs in the city has been extended to 31st instant. The Engineer Department has sent in to the Minister the claim of the Campanas Railway Company for payment of 216,700 pesos, 1870. It amounts to 65,974 pds.

Owing to the Banks Oriental having recently joined the Postal Convention, there will be a change in our rates of postage with that country from the 1st instant. There will be a reduction in the carriage of registered letters, commercial circulars, press current lists, &c, but the rate for newspapers will be exactly double what is paid in this country. A good deal of work for those newspapers with a post list of Banda Oriental subscribers.

The steamer Pingora down a lighter in the river, off San Nicolas, some nights ago. The usual story; so light on the lighter, and the Captain of the Pingora has entered a protest in due form.

There was a rumour on Change to-day that the Provincial Government is in treaty with some foreign house for the purchase of a large quantity of arms and ammunition, but we could get no particulars. The business has been done here in this line for the past six months is only known to a few, but it is enormous.

The report of the Water Works Commissioners was given round to-day, but we must hold it over.

The time for paying City Patentes will expire on the 20th inst., and will not be again extended.

The National Government has signed a contract of Tobo Island to its Granadero, who undertakes to reside there with his family and establish a sheep and cattle estancia, and the breeding of ostriches. This will ensure a place of call for vessels going South.
